

Dr. Fields photo credit: Steve Friedman © 2015

You are invited to our Ninth Annual
KSFF CINEMA-DINNER

Sat., Feb. 25, 2017 – 5:15 to 7:15 PM
Bradbury Thompson Alumni Center,
Washburn University, Topeka, Kansas
(Doors will open at 5:15 PM)

The Kansas Silent Film Festival's 9th Annual Cinema-Dinner will feature special guest Dr. Harriet Fields, granddaughter of W.C. Fields, speaking about her memories of her grandfather and the silent films in which he was featured.

The Cinema-Dinner venue is across the street from White Concert Hall (site of the KSFF) at Bradbury Thompson Alumni Center on the Washburn University campus.

Visit www.wcfields.com online.

PLEASE NOTE:

Dinner is served buffet-style / Seating is first come, first served.
— Cost is $40 per person (non-refundable) —
(This cost is not tax deductible)

Tickets may be on sale at the event, but seating is very limited.
This event usually sells out! Why not make reservations early?
Send reservation requests, checks payable to Kansas Silent Film Festival, to:

KSFF Cinema-Dinner
P.O. Box 2032, Topeka, Kansas 66601-2032

For details, updates and program notes visit:

www.kssilentfilmfest.org

2017 is our Twenty-First Year of classic silent film showings with live accompaniment.